Mobile Vaccination Clinics Continue Through February

(Sedgwick County, KS) – Throughout the month of February, the Sedgwick County Health Department (SCHD) will continue to offer mobile vaccination clinics throughout Sedgwick County. SCHD has established regular stops Mondays through Thursdays at the following locations this month:

Mondays (Feb. 7, 4, 28)	Tuesdays (Feb. 8, 15, 22)	Wednesdays (Feb. 9, 16, 23)	Thursdays (Feb. 10, 17, 24)
Exploration Place 300 N. McLean Blvd., 10 a.m.–12:30 p.m.	Alford Library 3447 S. Meridian Ave., 3–7 p.m.	WSU Charles Koch Arena 1845 Fairmount St. 9 a.m.–3 p.m.	Former Metro Blvd. High School 741 S. George Washington Blvd. 7–10 a.m.
Walters Library 4195 E. Harry St. 3–7 p.m.

COVID-19 vaccinations are also offered at the Community Vaccine Clinic, 223 S. Main in Wichita. Beginning Monday, Feb. 7, the new hours of operation will be 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

SCHD provides first doses through boosters of Pfizer vaccine for ages 5 and older and Johnson & Johnson vaccine for people over 18. Identification is not required to get vaccinated, but proof of prior vaccination(s) expedites registration. Individuals under 18 years old must have parent or guardian consent for vaccination.

SCHD partners with organizations and community partners – including schools, businesses, churches, libraries, and other community sites in Sedgwick County – to host mobile vaccination clinics. To inquire about hosting a clinic, email vaccineleads@sedgwick.gov.

About Sedgwick County

The mission of Sedgwick County is to cultivate a healthy, safe and welcoming community through exceptional public services, effective partnerships and dedicated employees. Founded in 1867, the County has steadily grown to span 1,008 miles, has a population of over 516,000 people and contains 20 cities, including Wichita, the largest city in Kansas. The 2022 Adopted Budget of $483.6 million focuses on appropriate compensation for employees throughout the organization as well as adding resources for increases in the cost of doing business and continued recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. Sedgwick County's values of Trust, Integrity, Collaboration, Compassion and Innovation back the strategic plan that focuses on delivering the best services possible that are sustainable and manageable under the current economic and health crisis.
